3	Progress in previous inspection key areas	Key Issue	Progress
		A minority of boys do not always attain standards which are high enough or make enough progress in their learning	Curriculum redesigned to engage boys. All boys in school interviewed to gain views and opinions regard teaching, learning and engagement. IMPACT: 2015-2016 Year 6 - 100% Boys made better than expected progress in writing 75% of boys made better than expected progress in SPaG and Maths.
		Occasionally a small amount of learning time is wasted in lessons when pupils are not as fully challenged as they might be, and this hinders their progress slightly	All lesson observations indicate pupils fully engaged. All lesson observations and book scrutinies indicate challenge offered. IMPACT 2015-2016 Year 6 Progress measures Writing 2.8, Maths -1.8 and Reading -2.6.
		The quality of marking is inconsistent and does not always help pupils to improve their work further.	New marking and feedback policy in place with input from the whole staff. (from September 2016) Staff using consistently across all subjects. SDI introduced for Maths to remove the need for developmental and positive feedback comments. Pupils are timetabled improvement time during the day and are clear what they must do to improve. IMPACT: Book scrutinies and Learning walks evidence that the majority of staff are using the marking policy consistently.
Teachers with responsibility for managing subjects have insufficient opportunity to improve learning.	With a small staff and changes in staffing structure, this has proved difficult. A new plan has been put in place from September 2016, to give time allocation each week via extended staff meetings to include aspects of subject leadership. In addition, time has been allocated during the school day for monitoring and assessment. From Spring term, additional fortnightly subject leadership time allocated to all leaders and termly subject leadership afternoons. IMPACT: Subject leaders have a clear monitoring and assessment programme in place for their subject area, they are aware of standards in their subject and what they need to do to raise standards further.
